Capital City Club is a private club not open to the public. Founded in 1883, it represents an institution that has provided Atlanta a rich account of significant developments throughout its 122 year history. Capital City Club is one of the oldest and most prestigious social clubs in America. Its membership consists of a mixture of successful people from all walks of life and various ethnic and cultural backgrounds. The ideas stated in the Club's Charter are "to promote the pleasure, kind feeling and general culture of its members." This has no doubt been perpetuated throughout the years as its hospitality has been enjoyed by thousands of visitors from all over the world including Presidents of the United States and Royalty from many other countries.

Book signing will follow.
