Open only to WINGS participants.

The WINGS program of Women's legacy of United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta mobilizes the next generation of women leaders—those under 40 years of age—to become community leaders through leadership training, fund-raising and advocacy. The goal of WINGS is to empower these up-and-coming women to become philanthropists and future leaders in our community.

To become part of WINGS, please contact Susanne Keenan at 404-527-3564.

Book signing will follow.
